Aims and Objectives

Our primary aim is to ensure that students attain the highest level of spiritual, moral and Islamic awareness. The young generation will learn to familiarize themselves with the message of Islam from both the Qur'an and the Sunnah, helping them to become better Muslims. The key objective is to provide this society with pious scholars and a substantial number of 'Hufaa'z'

Islamic Education

Students will spend half of the day learning either of the following:
Tahfeez – Memorization of the Qur'an
Alim Course – TAJWEED OF QUR'AN, HADITH, FIQH, SEERAT, ISLAMIC HISTORY, ARABIC, URDU
This is offered as:

- An intensive course of 7 years
- A basic course of 1-2 years, provided in English and French

Home Study Course

If you have a keen interest in furthering your knowledge and understanding of Islam but cannot attend a Madrassah, then why not take full advantage of our Islamic Home Correspondence Course today.

All Islamic subjects mentioned in the Alim course are included and can be studied at your convenience.

Lessons will be sent monthly and are 'FREE OF CHARGE'

Boarding Facilities

16+ students – At present we provide accommodation for 16+ students only at a nominal fee of £15.00 a week + £100 admission fee. This will include accommodation, food and Islamic education.

11+ students – We anticipate that we will be able to accommodate students from the age of 11+ in the very near future.

Secular Education

We have recently started an Islamic day school for boys aged 11+. Pupils will study the National curriculum subjects during the day and may choose to stay on in the evenings to study the Alim or Hafiz course. For 16+ students Secular education is available either by attending local Colleges or a Correspondence course.

Alimah Course

We are pleased to inform you that we have successfully established a number of Alimah classes in various parts of London in the evenings. The Course is run between 5pm - 7pm for women and girls, aged 10+ and is to be studied over a 6-year period, on a Part-time basis, leading to graduation as an Alimah, insha'llah. Lessons are conducted by qualified Alima's under the instruction and guidance of Ulama at Jameah Islameah.

APPEAL

Jameah requires a great deal of financial and voluntary assistance, we therefore appeal for:

DONATIONS

All contributions received will be invested in repayment of loans, refurbishment, maintenance and daily running costs, which are urgent at this immediate time.

With your help and support we will be able to meet and accomplish these targets

Cheques can be made payable to 'Jameah Islameah'

ALL DONATIONS WILL BE GREATLY APPRECIATED!

VOLUNTARY ASSISTANCE

We are urgently in need of skilled and professionally qualified Muslims to assist us.

If you can devote some of your time and have expertise in the following areas:

Property/Land development

We have open lands, permanent and temporary buildings, a lake, swimming pool and woodland and would like to develop this and utilize it in a manner which will be beneficial for all Muslims

Sporting Activities

Farming
